Newark Lottery Retailer Receives $10,000 Bonus Check

Pilot Travel Center Sold the Winning Pick-6 Jackpot Ticket

TRENTON (Oct. 7, 2019) – James Carey, New Jersey Lottery acting executive director, today visited Pilot Travel Center #1098 on 400 Doremus Ave., Newark in Essex County. Carey presented store officials with a ceremonial check for $10,000 representing the bonus commission the store receives for selling the winning $9,500,000 Pick-6 jackpot ticket from the Monday, September 30, drawing.

“Congratulations to Pilot Travel Center #1098 for selling this winning ticket. The win has made this location a very popular place, which from now on will be known as a lucky Lottery store,” Carey said. “Our retailer network is a very important part of New Jersey Lottery sales and we are excited that Pilot Travel Center was able to sell the winning Pick-6 jackpot ticket. We are thrilled that the New Jersey Lottery brand can assist our State’s business owners, large and small, with brand building by offering Lottery products that encourage consumer traffic into their stores.”

(l-r) Khuram Altaf, general manager of Pilot Travel Center, with Anthony, the seller of the winning Pick-6 ticket, receive a ceremonial $10,000 check from James Carey, New Jersey Lottery Acting Executive Director. The $9.5 million Pick-6 jackpot ticket was sold here for the Monday, September 30, drawing.

The winning numbers for the Monday, September 30, drawing were: 14, 22, 26, 29, 36, and 48. This is the third time the Pick-6 jackpot has been hit in 2019, and the biggest jackpot of the year. The jackpot for Pick-6 rolled 44 times and awarded over $5.3 million in prizes to over 850,000 New Jersey Lottery players.
