After 21 Years in Business, Mercer County Retailer Celebrates Selling $18.4 Million Jackpot Ticket

TRENTON (Nov. 20, 2026) – New Jersey Lottery is proud to highlight and congratulate the owner of Washington Wine & Liquors, Chris Sze, for selling the $18.4 million jackpot-winning Pick-6 ticket for the Thursday, November 12, drawing. For selling the winning ticket, the store has received a $10,000 bonus from the New Jersey Lottery. Lottery officials met with Chris at his store where they presented him with his ceremonial check.

"I can't believe it's finally happened," Chris exclaimed with hands clasped in joy. He continued to share, "21 years in business and I've been dreaming of selling a huge jackpot ticket to one of my customers!"

Winners of the New Jersey Lottery have the right to remain anonymous, and Chris does not know which customer purchased the ticket but is excited for whoever it could be.

The winning numbers for the Thursday, November 12, drawing were 01, 10, 18, 26, 42, and 45. Washington Wine & Liquors is located at 2317 State Highway 33, Robbinsville in Mercer County. The cash value of the prize is $7,855,932.

Lucky November

This month continues to be a lucky streak for New Jersey Lottery players. The month started off with a Monmouth County player winning $1,000,000 at a NY Jets game. That same week a lucky player in Bergen County won the $847 million Powerball jackpot, the ninth largest Powerball jackpot. A Morris County player has already come forward to claim a $1,000,000 Scratch-Off this week, and Pick-3 players set a new single-day prizewinning record when the Green Ball promotional drawing came out 2-2-2, awarding over $2,000,000 in Pick-3 prizes on November 10.
