Morris County Player Wins $1,000,000 Scratch-Off Prize

New Jersey kicks off November with big wins

TRENTON (November 10, 2026) – A New Jersey Lottery player in Morris County on Friday, November 6 won $1,000,000 in the New Jersey $1 Million Premier CA$H Scratch-Off game. Two of the game's top prizes remain. The winner, a regular Lottery player, bought his $20 ticket at the Netcong Valero, 10 Route 46 East in Netcong.

"I never thought I would win," the winner said. "I scratched it off right there and I said, 'Holy God, I think I won a million dollars!" While the winner has chosen to remain anonymous, they shared that the prize will help pay off the house and purchase a car.

The premier win comes on the heels of the $847,000,000 million ticket sold at Wegmans Food Market, 100 Farm View in Montvale, Bergen County two days earlier on November 4. Also in Bergen County, a Jersey Cash 5 ticket worth $717,734 sold at Fort Lee Tiger Mart, 1616 Bergen Boulevard in Fort Lee.

Other top prizes last week included a $200,000 Powerball winner, four $50,000 Powerball winners, and a $50,000 Payday winner. More information on last week's prizes here.

More About the New Jersey Lottery

Since its inception in 1970, the Lottery has contributed nearly $34.7 billion to the State, helping to support many worthwhile programs and services. Lottery profits currently help bolster the public employee pension system under a 30-year agreement signed into law in 2017.
