$18.4 Million Pick-6 Jackpot Won in Mercer County

November's Lucky Streak Continues for NJ Lottery Players

TRENTON (Nov. 13, 2026) – One lucky New Jersey Lottery player is now the proud winner of $18.4 million thanks to their lucky Pick-6 ticket purchase in Mercer County. The ticket matched all six of the six white balls drawn on Thursday, November 12, to win the jackpot. The cash value of the prize is $7,855,932.

The winning numbers were 01, 10, 18, 26, 42, and 45. The winning ticket was sold at Washington Wine & Liquors, 2317 State Highway 33, Robbinsville in Mercer County. The store will receive a $10,000 bonus for selling the jackpot ticket. The Pick-6 jackpot has reset to $2 million heading into Monday's drawing.

"This exciting jackpot is wonderful news for the winner, reason to celebrate for the retailer, and a reminder of the excitement that the New Jersey Lottery can bring to players throughout the state," said New Jersey Lottery Commission Chair Ian Leonard.

The winner has one year from the date of the drawing to claim the prize.

"Congratulations to our newest Pick-6 jackpot winner," New Jersey Lottery Executive Director James Carey said. "We recommend the lucky player signs the ticket, keeps it in a safe place, and reaches out for professional guidance. We're all looking forward to meeting this prizewinner. Anything can happen in Jersey!"

Double Play Results

Players are able to add Double Play for an extra $1.00 providing a chance to win up to $250,000 in cash. No player matched all six of the six white balls. The numbers were 11, 14, 17, 32, 36 and 37.

Lucky November

This month continues to be a lucky streak for New Jersey Lottery players. The month started off with a Monmouth County player winning $1,000,000 at a NY Jets game. That same week a lucky player in Bergen County won the $847 million Powerball jackpot, the ninth largest Powerball jackpot ever. A Morris County player has already come forward to claim a $1,000,000 Scratch-Off this week, and Pick-3 players set a new single-day prizewinning record when the Green Ball promotional drawing came out 2-2-2, awarding over $2,000,000 in Pick-3 prizes on November 10.
